SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON

At Clement Home Last Tuesday Evening in Honor of Miss Marion Ellis Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Clement and daughter, Miss Marian, were at home to two hundred of their friends Tuesday evening in honor of the bride of the week, Miss Ellis Gray. The beautiful home was illuminated and decorated with cut flowers and smilax. The guests were invited for different hours some arriving at 8:30 departing at 9:30; some from 9 to 10 some from 9:30 to 10:30; and some later, and it was indeed a moving panorama of beauty and chivalry which passed in procession through the hospitable doorway of this beautiful home. As the guests arrived they were shown first to the cloak rooms, then into the hall and were served with punch, Mesdames Virgil Moore and Cecil Ellis, two charming young matrons presiding there. The introduction to the host, hostesses, guest of honor, and the visitors followed. In the receiving line were the host, hostesses, the guest of honor, the groom to be, Mr. Frank Raymond Edwards, of Gilbert, Minn., his sister, Miss Mary Evelyn Edwards, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mr. Edward D. Gray, of San Juan, Porto Rico, only brother of the bride, who came home a distance of 2500 miles to attend the wedding.

Brick cream from a well known Evansville caterer was served with nabiscoes to the guests standing in the dining room. An elegant entertainment it was, adding another jewel to Marion's social calendar. One delighted guest remarked, "the girls look prettier, the ladies younger and handsomer, the men and boys better looking than they ever did before to me, in fact its the best looking crowd I ever saw." And that expressed it about right.

Vacation.

D. Woods, the affable banker, who has passed the three score mark, and who is a most untiring worker, is off on a vacation and took advantage of it to visit his daughter, Mrs. Welford White, and children, at Helena, Ark.

No Wonder The State Is In Debt

Frankfort, Ky., June 5, 1913.
At the Wednesday meeting of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission final arrangements were made for taking over the Health Exhibit Car, which was run to a great many towns in the State a year ago. The car is now being altered, and a new exhibit is being installed. In the course of ten days the car will start on another trip through Kentucky. The Commission hopes to keep the car on the road, at least, two years, and reach, if possible, all the available points in the State. A committee of three was appointed to meet at the Capitol next Monday, and engage one or more representatives to travel with the car and explain the exhibit.

CARNAHAN BROS. & DODGE'S SALE

Now On.—Immense Crowds.—Excitement Was at Fever Heat Big Sale Grand Success

The big sale opened at Carnahan Bros and Dodge last Friday was a grand success in every way. Two hours before the doors opened the crowds were at the doors eager to get the real bargains offered by that firm on their entire stock.

Never in the history of Marion could be seen such large crowds of shoppers buying as fast as seventeen clerks to wait on them. If you desire to secure big bargains in every article you had better attend this sale as Saturday night at 11 p. m. closes this big sale forever.

The balloon ascension last Saturday was a grand success, thousands witnessed this grand ascension. Next Saturday at 3 p. m. see the grand twelve foot airship flight. You are invited. Are you coming?

Paducah Visitor to Marry.

Invitations have been received in the city to the wedding of Miss Ellis Gray of Marion, Ky., and Mr. Frank Edwards, of Minneapolis, Minn., to take place on June 12th, in Marion.

The announcement is of interest in Paducah where Miss Gray has frequently visited. On these occasions she has been the popular guest of Mrs. William Hughes, of the Ellis apartment and of Miss Sarah Sanders of 501 Kentucky avenue.—Paducah Sun.

Freak of Female Snake.

Petersburg, Ind., June 9.—Chester Warner, while playing at the old fair ground saw a large blue racer. He chopped its head off and was surprised to see forty small blue racers crawl out of the body of the snake. The snake had swallowed all her young when she saw danger near.

A Martyr.

A young man recently ate the ribbons tied around the sandwiches served to him at a party. He was very polite and didn't like to ask what the ribbons were for, and so he ate them. As he had at least four sandwiches, it is estimated that he ate fully three yards of ribbon. We have so often had occasion to point out the blunders made by people that we charitably refrain from saying where this unfortunate young man was from.—Pembroke Journal.

THE "PRIDE OF STETSON"

Marion Girl Captivates Florida Audience

Miss Anna Haynes, the voice graduate, one of the most gifted soloists in DeLand, was quite at her best. "Marie, My Girl," by Aitken; "Two Folk Songs" by Chadwick, and Jefferson's "Mother Dear" was the first group of songs, very daintily done. The heavier number was an Aria from Rossini, "Separation," sung as by an artist but without stage mannerisms, appealing to the audience evoking the heartiest applause. The last group of songs were from MacDowell; "The Swan," A Maid sings Light, and "Long Ago," followed by Herman's "Wooping," leaving the audience with the very best idea of her work and musical temperament. DeLand Fla., Record.

Repton Special.

A pretty little romance occurred in our midst Tuesday afternoon when Virgil Summers of Francis and Miss Pearl Carrier of Morganfield went to Marion and were quietly married by Rev. Yates.

They were accompanied by Miss Bernice Powell a cousin of the bride and Pratt Stanley.

A number of friends came to the train to bid them goodbye, and among them was Mrs. W. K. Powell aunt of the bride who was ignorant of the fact they were eloping, as Miss Carrier had left the impression that she was going to Blackford to visit relatives and Mr. Summers was supposed to be on his way home consequently Mrs. Powell was very much surprised when instead of going in opposite directions, they all got on the south bound train for Marion. Miss Carrier is a popular young lady of Morganfield and has made many friends on her former visits here. Mr. Summers formerly lived here and is well known.

Their many friends join with us in wishing them a long and happy life.

COL. ROBERTS HAVING A TIME

At Editor's Association, Olympia Springs, Ky., Representing This Paper.

Frankfort June 9.

And how is Judge Nunn is the first question the Frankforter ask. Judge Nunn is certainly a favorite with these people.

The State Journal's "opening" was regardless of expense, they have a wonderfully complete plant, a battery of five linotype machines, folding and printing and binding machines, in fact a most complete printing plant.

Mr. Watterson sends the pleasant good wishes to his boys, of the State Journal Press and every official from the Governor down adds to the congratulations of the day.

It surely was a very full program that the program that the owners of the State Journal pulled off today, with the delightful lunch, their special edition of the Journal and their automobile excursion of 40 miles to Lexington where the guests were met with a special train over the C. & O. to Olympia Springs. Every point was covered. At this moment a band of ten or twelve pieces is making sweet music at Olympia. The supper to-night at the hotel was excellent, the house crowded and everybody pleasantly situated and satisfied.

There was time in the trip from Frankfort to Lexington where a possibility of delay was imminent. We stopped at the Old Taylor Distillery where as per the custom of Kentuckian, nothing was too good for the guest. Forty automobiles were in waiting. 200 guests were taken care of.

Mint julips, high balls, toddys and all the things that the wickedness of a man named Webb attempted to prevent were in full force. 75,000 barrels of spiritous ferments were in storage when the Press Association reached there. It is diminished sensibly this evening. A more detailed account of the Press Association and its members will follow.—D. C. Roberts.

Mr. Frank R. Edwards, of Gilbert, Minn., and sister Miss Mary Evelyn Edwards, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived Tuesday afternoon. On this (Thursday) afternoon Mr. Edwards will be united in marriage to Miss Marion Ellis Gray. It will be a home wedding. The ceremony will be performed by Rt. Rev. Father Kellaners of the Roman Catholic church of which the bride is a devout member, at 2 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. George Gray on corner main st. and Wilson avenue. Immediately after which they will leave for Chicago and Minneapolis. At the latter place they will visit the groom's parents.

Children of Rev. C. T. Clarke Ill of Ptomaine Poisoning Sunday Night.

Three daughters of Rev. C. T. Clarke, of Smith Mills, were in a serious condition Sunday night of ptomaine poisoning believed to have been caused by eating some canned food. Dr. Roysier worked with the children unceasingly for several hours.

Irene, aged 10, became ill at church while her father was preaching, May Naomi was stricken a few minutes after she left church, and Mag, aged 14 a short time after arriving at home. They were pronounced out of danger Monday afternoon.—Henderson Gleaner.

Alleges Money Wasted At State Normal School.

Frankfort, Ky., June 5.—Charges of recklessness and extravagance in expenditure of money appropriated by the state to the Eastern Kentucky normal school at Richmond were made by state inspector and Examiner Sherman Goodpaster in a report to Governor McCreary.

The inspector declares much of the money is spent with no hope of return inform of benefit to students.

The recapitulation shows liabilities of $98,929.08 and available assets of $57,640.10. This was the remarkable condition of affairs, says the report, when the assembly of 1912 appropriated the additional income of $35,000 for the two normal schools with provisions that trustees of schools should not contract obligations for the institution in excess of the money on hand, under penalty of fine and imprisonment. Various items of expenditure are targets for criticism in the inspector's report.

Thanks Mr. Metcalfe.

T. L. Metcalfe the florist at Hopkinsville sent each church here a large bouquet of roses last Sunday which were highly appreciated.

It was children's day at two of the churches and the flowers were especially useful at those places.

Webster County Happenings.

Dixon, Ky., June 9.—The fine feed and stock barn of W. L. Kyvckendall near Clay, was struck by lightning, killing a mule and burning 350 bushels of corn, hay, harness and farming implements with a total loss of $1,500. No insurance was carried.

Dixon, Ky., June 10.—Ben Watson, Jr., was painfully injured when he fell from a roller on his father's farm, his foot being horribly mashed when caught between two rollers.
